Preparing for Your Visa Interview

All eligible applicants must complete the following tasks before their visa interview. Detailed instructions for each step are online at nvc.state.gov/interview (English) and nvc.state.gov/interview/espanol (Spanish):

1. Complete a medical examination with a U.S. embassy-approved physician. Every person applying for a visa is required to have a medical examination and submit the results on the day of the interview.
2. Register for a courier service (if required) and read the interview instructions for your location.
3. Gather documents required for the interview. You must bring to the interview the original versions of all civil documents and certificates submitted to NVC. You may need to get updated financial documents and police certificates.
4. Visit the embassy's website at usembassy.gov for additional information.

Please visit nvc.state.gov/interview to view our online interview preparation information. You can also watch a video at nvc.state.gov/resources. This instructional video is available in eight languages.

 IMPORTANT  Interview Reminders

You already submitted certain forms and documents to NVC. At your visa interview, you must give the consular officer the original version of each civil document you submitted plus one photocopy for each person applying for a visa. These original versions will be returned to you.

- The only form you do not need to bring to your interview is the Form DS-260 Application for an Immigrant Visa. Instead, print a copy of the receipt page from ceac.state.gov showing you submitted the form online.
- If a financial sponsor submitted an I-864 Affidavit of Support form, you must give the consular officer a signed version. It can be a photocopy, but the signature cannot be typed or electronic.
- If you do not bring to your interview the original version of all civil documents submitted to NVC, the consular officer will reschedule your interview.

Please use the helpful checklist on the next page to prepare for your interview. You can also visit "Interview Preparation - Required Documents" on nvc.state.gov/interview or watch our instructional video at nvc.state.gov/resources for more information.
